- 9 To add to the outdoor look of your dinner, use moss sparingly throughout the table or decorations, reminding your guests that nature is all around them. Accent place cards and planters with it, but also experiment with different shapes. For instance, cover foam spheres in sheet moss to play with the idea of nature and artifice.
- 10 Take advantage of the Internet! Although you should always have alternate plans to bring an outdoor party in, the extended forecasts available online can help you track how likely that scenario is and plan accordingly.
