The invitations sit on the polished pool table (left), ready to give to family and friends. Because of the event's secrecy, it was not until the 60 guests were shuttled to the exclusive gated estate where the couple live and through their front door – which had been transformed to resemble a Las Vegas casino entrance – that they received the beautifully tied silk boxes. “Ayda’s better at keeping a secret than me,” admitted Robbie of the covert operation. “But on this occasion I’ve pretty much managed it”
