Exciting new ways to personalize wedding correspondence and set the tone for stylish proceedings.

Push the envelope Let your guests judge your upcoming wedding by the cover—of the invitation. An unconventional envelope can wrap up expectations in intriguing style, adding drama and excitement. Clockwise from top left: Paris green silk invitation box with rose petals, by RedBliss; brown and pink silk shantung envelope with diamanté accent, by Paper Girl; handmade cotton invitation with translucent organza sleeve, by DHP Papermill & Press; silk douppioni envelope and invitation with chocolate satin camellia accent, by RedBliss; vintage silk scarf envelopes, by Pamela Barsky.
